Online Construction News:

Basic Access: This level of access is FREE (with paid membership)! You have the ability to view projects in Pre-bid, Active and Apparent Low status. Information includes new projects, bidders lists, listing of addenda/memo, when they were received and the number of pages, project details, blueprint sheet lists for ordering blueprints and all search capabilities. By searching in the apparent low phase, you can access the bid results for any past project. Pre-bid has information regarding upcoming projects. Tracking projects is also available for those with basic access. If we have your email address on file and you are currently tracking a specific project, you will get email updates when anything changes regarding that project such as additions to the bidders list, bid date change or the receiving of addenda. Also, as long as you have a username and password you can add your company to the bidders list.
